cabinet and a couple of other things to store some of the medical records and the like, and some other additional clerical costs to go with it. The A bill is in the neighborhood of $4,200 the first year and then drops down around 3,200 from there on. So it is a minor financial support to this change.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? If not, the question is the advancement of LB 372A. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We are voting on the advancement of the A bill. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of 372A.

PRESIDENT: LB 372A is advanced. Now, Mr. Clerk, do you have anything to put in?

CLERK: Mr. President, items for the record. Natural Resources gives notice of hearing for January 21; Education for January 25; Revenue for January 21; Retirement Systems on January...; Business and Labor for January 25, all signed by their respective chairs, Mr. President.

New bills. (Read for the first time by title: LBs 1123-1124. See page 333 of the Legislative Journal.)

I have amendments to be printed from Senator Hall to LB 90; Senator Hefner would like to print amendments to 466. Senator Pirsch would like to add her name to 170 as co-introducer and Senator Coordsen to 1088 as co-introducer. (See pages 333-35 of the Legislative Journal.

Mr. President, I have a Reference Report referring LBs 1093 through 1122. That is offered by Senator Labeledz as Chair. Mr. President, the Executive Board would like to announce that all bill requests must be submitted to the Revisor of Statutes by twelve o'clock noon next Tuesday in order to be ready for introduction by the 10th day; all bill requests must be brought to the Revisor's Office by noon next Tuesday in order to be introduced by the 10th day.

Mr. President, one final bill, LB 1125. (Read for the first time by title. See pages 336-37 of the Legislative Journal.) And that is all that I have, Mr. President.
